BEST FINISH OF THE SEASON

JOCKEY ODOM GIVEN CREDIT FOR WINNING RACE.

7 EW YORK, Sept. 13 .- F. C. Mc-Lee's grand performer, Major Daingerfield, with Odom in the saddle, won the $25,000 annual champion stakes at Sheepshead Bay. Alex Shields' Zoroaster was second, and W. C. Whitney's Slipthrift third. The big crowd applauded the finish as the best and closest seen on the Metropolitan track this season, Daingerfield winning by a nose.

It was the concensus of opinion that the winning of the favorite was entirely due to Odom's wonderful finish.

Seven good horses faced the starter for this race, which was a trip of two miles and a quarter. Major Daingerfield closed favorite at 8 to 5, with Zor-

Starter Pettingeli sent them away to a beautiful start, the horses running head and head for fully fifty yards. Slipthrift forged to the front, making the first turn. As the field swung into the back stretch Slipthrift had opened a gap of ten lengths, with Gold Cure second and the Major third. Slipthrift continued to show the way for nearly two miles. Rounding the far turn, the last time around, Odom began to send his mount along. At the stretch he had the leader beaten, and it looked as if he would come home alone, but Shaw, on Zoroaster, who was riding a splendid race, made his move and was head in front of the fast tiring Maat the eighth pole. #### WILL TRY NEW TRACK

More Stable Room Required-Hobo Has Great Race on Next Wednesday.

Today promises to be a lively one at the new track at Agricultural park. A majority of the best horses in the city are now quartered there training for the state fair races, and today will be given fast workouts to try the new track. The horsemen have been very much perplexed of late on account of Hable room at the track and are anxously requesting the committee in parge of the grounds to supply them with more room. Yesterday ten more ttalls were completed, giving a total of thirty-five in all. Even this imount, however, will not be adequate, theing claimed that nearly 100 head of horses will be stabled there while the races are going on.

Word was received yesterday from
Ogden that a free-for-all pace and trot or a purse of $150 would be added to Local horsemen say they will enter the tyent and, in all probability, it will be one of the features of the meet.

Horsemen in the city and, in fact, all Horsemen in the city and, in fact, all the lovers of the game, are anxiously awaiting the result of the northwest itake, to be run at Salem, Ore., next Wednesday. The purse for this event is $2,000 and all the best horses in the northwest are entered. Chief interest locally, however, centers in Hobo, the Salt Lake flyer, owned by W. R. Stone of this city. On account of the great record made by this horse since he started in the Pacific northwest circuit is thought here that he will be able carry off this, the banner event of the fall circuit.

Stone announced last week that he would bring Hobo home in order to get him in the free-for-all scheduled at the state fair meeting. Whether he meant it seriously or not, he has at least got several owners of possible winners guessing. They say that while they may not beat Hobo, yet if he comes down to this city and starts, they wil lgive him a race for the purse of $500 offered for the event.

When Samuel Karpf, secretary of the American bowling congress, who arranged the trip and will personally conduct the tour, first laid plans for thistel the largest journey ever undertaken by a bowling team—he announced that the trip would start on Oct. 5, and with Al Selbach of Baltimore, captain; Ernest Peterson of Chicago, Phil Wolf of Brooklyn and J. J. Voorheis of New York as the team, some doubt was expressed as to whether the venture would prove a success. That it has is best attested by the fact that the complete schedule shows the trio will be on the road exactly 103 days, during which time games will be rolled in sixty-six cities, located in twenty-five states and one territory.

Here in Salt Lake the season promises to eclipse all previous ones at the game. Great preparations are now going on in nearly all the schools of the state to put eleven husky boys in the field to annihilate eleven equally husky youths from some rival institution.

Chandler had to give up the twenty-second hole after clubbing his drive to a bunker and sending his ball deep into a gopher hole in a desperate stroke to get out. Hopelessly bunkered at the twenty-fourth hole, he also gave up that hole. His cousin failed to take advantage of the poor streak of playing and was generally in trouble at the same time. This partly accounts for Chandler's failure to gain a decided ad-vantage at the turn of the last quar-ter of the race.
